Leonora Carrington: Living Legacies Jun 05 2020 The English born artist and writer Leonora Carrington (1917–2011) has received much critical acclaim and achieved stellar status in Mexico, where she lived and worked for most of her life, having fled Europe via Spain in tormenting circumstances. Leonora Carrington: Living Legacies brings together a collection of chapters that constitute a range of artistic, scholarly and creative responses to the realm of Carrington emphasizing how her work becomes a medium, a milieu, and a provocation for new thinking, being and imagining in the world. The diversity of contributions from scholars, early career researchers, and artists, include unpublished papers, interviews, creative provocations, and writing from practice-led interventions. Collectively they explore, question, and enable new ways of thinking with Carrington's legacy. Wishing to expand on recent important scholarly publications by established Carrington researchers which have brought historical and international significance to the artist's legacy, this volume offers new perspectives on the artist's relevance in feminist thinking and artistic methodologies. Conscious of Carrington's reluctance to engage in critical analysis of her artwork we have approached this scholarly task through a lens of give and return that the artist herself musingly articulates in her 1965 mock-manifesto Jezzamathatics: "I was decubing the root of a Hyperbollick Symposium ... when the latent metamorphosis blurted the great unexpected shriek into something between a squeak and a smile. IT GAVE, so to speak, in order to return." (Aberth, 2010:149). In adopting her playful conjecture, this publication seeks to bring Carrington and her work to further prominence.

Thou Shalt Never Get Rid of Us Sep 28 2019 When the foes are inside you, the only option left is to fight... Introducing Thou Shalt Never Get Rid of Us, a story of an uncanny part of Miguel Asecas' life. It is a true story told without makeup. An explosive combination of drugs, stress, and sleep deprivation which led him to an ordeal of twenty-five long years, during which his life elapsed between two very different worlds: the actual world as known by all of us, with a lifestyle not so different than that of many other people. And then there was an inner world full of delusions, paranoia, and auditive hallucinations, in which there are happening situations and appearing characters every time more bizarre. His goal: to not allow “them” to ruin his life. To do that he felt would be enough. This story is also that of a process of personal growth and recovery. He quit taking drugs and transitioned from being almost overwhelmed by the voices to coping successfully with them and even taming them to an extent. This is not a guide, nor a manual for others to copy, but is a tale of courage and triumph all the same.

The age-old ways in which one could get rid of stress and tension, was getting a massage done, listening to music, cooking something in the kitchen, or just sitting quietly in one corner of the garden, and dreaming of absolutely nothing at all. The last one is of course something a large number of us want to do, if only we had the time to sit and stare! If I tell any of my workaholic friends, to take some time off to contemplate the reticulate venation of a leaf, they are going to give me a look of “what makes you that way, do you think I have the time to look at the venous system of a leaf?” They may have course not remember it, but when they were children, they spend hours and hours, contemplating a butterfly, a daisy, a dandelion, or anything else, which caught their interest, and did not consider that time wasted. How come the moment we grew up, we decided to make stress and strain our portion, forgot how to relax, and decided we would rather live a life on the go, instead of at a turtle pace. Here are 16 easy to do rest and relax tips, which are going to help you get rid of all that stress, strain and tension, which you have welcomed into your life, and which you can try out, depending on your lifestyle and the amount of time you have free, out of your busy schedule. You may not know it, but some people have their own way of relaxing, and starting up the day in a manner which puts them in a frame of mind, which keeps them in a state of contentment, throughout the day. You have to find your own perfect beginning, to the start of the day, yoga, meditation, going for a walk, jogging, find out a routine, which suits you best, and then added to your daily lifestyle. This reminds me of a really cute story told to me, by one of my friends, whose father told him that the first thing he did, when he woke up in the morning was touch his slippers 30 times, first thing in the morning. Well, I do not enjoy these bending exercises, first thing in the morning, but it seemed this oldster enjoyed this sort of activity. And then he gave a sly smile and wink and said, “Then I get out of bed and put them on.” I guess he had been pulling our leg to such a great extent that we needed binoculars to check where our foot was.

Seven Ways to Get Rid of Harry Jul 31 2022 Danny Zelko, 13 going on 14, needs to get rid of his mom's boyfriend, Harry. The guy is a creep. Drinks too much, locks Danny out of the house, gets in Danny's face and calls him Danielle. Of course everyone blames Danny. It's his fault he gets into fights at school. It's his fault he can't control his anger. It's his fault Harry is such a jerk. Danny isn't such a bad kid—he has his own lawn business, makes his own dinner, even takes out the garbage and closes up the house without being asked. All he wants is for his mom to be like she used to be—a real mother who acted like one. Because Harry makes her stupid. When she gets around him, she forgets about her kids. Disappears with him, doesn't stick up for her own son. And the prospect of spending another day with this man makes Danny feel helpless and broken. So when Danny's sister, Lisa, reveals that Harry and their mom are getting married, Danny, never the one to cower, decides to do something. That's right, one way or another, he will get rid of Harry. Set in 1983, New Jersey, Seven Ways to Get Rid of Harry is packed with Danny's friends and enemies, a few fist fights, heartbreak and fury, and a little humor too.

Let's Get Rid of Fat Apr 03 2020 If you have a weight problem, today is the day to change your life and read Let's Get Rid of Fat: This one just works. Start losing weight now. Says author Graham Ryland, My wife and I quite happily separated many years ago. I had retired from my own company and wished to sail around the world in my yacht. My wife was made the CEO of the company she was working for and wished to stay. Pam was a slim lady full of life and vitality. We parted for some sixteen years. I had sold the yacht and returned to my old city. I met an old friend and he gave me my wife's address. We met and got back together again. In those sixteen years, Pam put on weight and was battling several diseases. She had trouble walking uphill, having to stop every few paces and hold her heart with pain, and her diabetes was out of control. Graham studied sugar, salt and food additives, putting Pam on a fat-free eating program. It took her ten months to lose over 125 pounds. Pam is now a healthy lady, walks up hills and stairs, and is back kayaking four miles. She is a new woman. In her words, 'There is no way I would go off this program and back to the old misery.' About the Author: Inspired by his wife, Pamela, Graham Ryland hopes this book will help others live healthier lives. He is retired and lives in Melbourne, Australia. Living the Creative Life Aug 20 2021 How DO they do it? If you could ask your favorite artist or crafter only one question, chances are you'd ask about creativity: Where do your ideas come from? How did you get started? What are your tricks for overcoming blocks? In Living the Creative Life, author Ricë Freeman-Zachery has compiled answers to these questions and more from 15 successful artists in a variety of mediums—from assemblage to fiber arts, beading to mixed-media collage. Creativity is different for everyone, and these artists share their insights on the muse (if you believe in her), keeping a sketchbook (or not), and prioritizing your art, whether you aspire to create solely for your own pleasure or to become a full-time artist. • Try your hand at creative jumpstarts straight from the pros. • Glimpse the artists' innermost thoughts and works in progress as you peruse pages from their journals and notebooks. • Share textile artist Sas Colby's triumph over creative block during an exotic art retreat. • Learn how internationally acclaimed artist James Michael Starr uses experience from his former "day job" to fuel his creation today. • Explore the work of Michael deMeng, Claudine Hellmuth, Melissa Zink and the other artists right alongside their insights. No crafter or artist should live the creative life without Living the Creative Life! The inspiration is contagious.

Traces on the Water Mirror: Volume I: Dying to Get Rid of Communism Oct 02 2022 Traces on the Water Mirror: Volume I, Dying to Get Rid of Communism By: Captain C Traces on the Water Mirror: Volume I, Dying to Get Rid of Communism is an interesting book inspired by the author's biography and not invented. It brings to light a group of people less investigated by the Romanian literature. The author has a vigorous and harsh style of writing, according to the character who are not made of cardboard, but they are real flesh and blood. I consider this novel, included into a trilogy, according to the author, to be well received by the public. Literary Critic Ioan Adam Captain C is a rare sea writer, coming from a professional of the sea. The novel shapes the authentic feeling of the sea and an unmistakable human solidarity, revealed in its total plenitude and deepness, only in the conditions of a concrete travel by sea. Novelist Ovidiu Dun?reanu

Living Buddhism Jan 13 2021 In Living Buddhism, Julia Cassaniti explores Buddhist ideas of impermanence, nonattachment, and intention as they are translated into everyday practice in contemporary Thailand. Although most lay people find these philosophical concepts difficult to grasp, Cassaniti shows that people do in fact make an effort to comprehend them and integrate them as guides for their everyday lives. In doing so, she makes a convincing case that complex philosophical concepts are not the sole property of religious specialists and that ordinary lay Buddhists find in them a means for dealing with life's difficulties. More broadly, the book speaks to the ways that culturally informed ideas are part of the psychological processes that we all use to make sense of the world around us. In an approachable first-person narrative style that combines interview and participant-observation material gathered over the course of two years in the community, Cassaniti shows how Buddhist ideas are understood, interrelated, and reinforced through secular and religious practices in everyday life. She compares the emotional experiences of Buddhist villagers with religious and cultural practices in a nearby Christian village. Living Buddhism highlights the importance of change, calmness (as captured in the Thai phrase jai yen, or a cool heart), and karma; Cassaniti's narrative untangles the Thai villagers' feelings and problems and the solutions they seek.

ART OF HAPPY LIVING IS? Apr 27 2022 INTRODUCTION Art of happy living Is? - Don't be Negative Be Strong. The feeling of leading a happy life is not to be negative at all. It is said that happiness is purely our own matter. Though it has got something to do with our external circumstances. But there are certainly some positive factors within us that keep us happy and there is something negative within us also which keep us unhappy. Enjoy your life through positive and good thoughts, is nothing more than that of living a normal life free from undue pressures, problems and tensions. If we want to live a good and happy life then we need to get rid of the negativity within us which makes us unhappy. Negative approach always complicates the problems and increases unhappiness. Most of us do the fatal mistake of looking outwards for happiness rather than looking inwards. Be positive, be strong, be bold and be courageous you are sure to find the feeling of happiness within you.
