Creativity and the Arts with Young Children Jun 17 2021 CREATIVITY AND THE ARTS WITH YOUNG CHILDREN, Third Edition, is written for early childhood educators as well as those who work with children from birth through age eight. The text focuses on helping educators make the vital connection to the arts--including music, movement, drama, and the visual arts--throughout all areas of the classroom and curriculum, and on developing creative teachers who will be able to foster an artistic environment. Observations and photos of teachers and children demonstrate practical ways the arts can be used to help children reach their potential. Educators will find many ideas for open-ended activities that are important for the development of young children, and which will encourage them to think in new ways. Discussion of professional standards and recommendations allows teachers to be cognizant of goals that are important in the early years. Thorough in its coverage, the text speaks to children with special needs and cultural diversity, leaving readers with a complete information resource regarding arts in the young child's classroom. Important Notice: Media content referenced within the product description or the product text may not be available in the ebook version.

Dr. Dave's Cyberhood Jan 25 2022 You wouldn't let your children wander off into an unfamiliar neighborhood alone -- nor should they be left to explore the vast world of electronic media by themselves. You may have read about the effects violent television shows and video games can have on children, but you know the solution isn't simply to unplug everything. The key for parents, says Dr. David Walsh, founder and president of the nonprofit National Institute on Media and the Family, is to be informed and involved when choosing the electronic environments where kids play and learn. Dr. Dave's Cyberhood helps parents take stock of the growing number of films, TV shows, video games, music, and web sites that stream into their homes every day. With Dr. Dave as a guide, you can Teach kids how to interact with media responsibly -- whether they're playing alone or with friends Evaluate the content of videos, electronic games, and web sites to help you decide if they are appropriate for your family Talk openly with your kids about the kinds of media they like and map out cyberhoods that everyone can agree on Complete with hands-on activities and positive recommendations for a variety of media products, Dr. Dave's Cyberhood gives parents the tools they need to find cyberhoods that their kids can enjoy -- and that they can trust.

Introduction to Forests and Renewable Resources Jan 13 2021 The introductory course in natural resources is broader and more diverse than ever. Today's students need to know how to manage forest, wildlife, watershed, and range resources in a variety of environments and serving the needs of myriad stakeholders. To that end, Chad Dawson has built on the foundation established by him and the late John Hendee to bring Introduction to Forests and Renewable Resources thoroughly up to date. The Ninth Edition has been reorganized to better address content—for example, policy and the differences between managing federal, state, and private land—that applies to all resources. While forests continue to be emphasized, more coverage is provided to other resources and to achieving management goals for multiple resources when considering topics like fire and recreation.

GIV365 Daily Devotional Aug 27 2019 If you are looking to grow closer to God, then look no further. GIV365 Daily Devotional: God Is Visible Every Day is designed for people who want to grow spiritually. The book is filled with exciting ways the reader can experience God. Seeking God is an active choice made easier by daily devoting time to Him. Each week of the year has a day dedicated to the "Prayer of the Week" for special focus. This daily devotional is an exciting new release from first-time Christian author Steven M. Hitchcock and is produced by his small business consulting firm, Old to New Business Advisors. Steven has dedicated thousands of hours of writing and research into developing this daily devotional inspired by God. GIV365's brilliant white cover and pages are a constant reminder to the reader that Jesus has washed away every sin they have committed. Purple lettering is used to represent God's ultimate authority and is a reminder that Jesus will return soon to earth for his children. Steven hopes that the Bible verses, personal accounts and takeaways will inspire the reader to grow a deeper, more meaningful relationship with God. Be courageous and make the decision today to build a stronger relationship with God. About the Author Steven is a missionary for Jesus Christ who is a loving and caring husband to his wife Fawn and father to their three-year-old son Trey. Steven is currently serving on the board for Living Water of Ohio as the marketing director. He is an active member of his local church serves as assistant director for safety and security. In October of 2019, God called Steven to pursue full-time ministry which prompted him to enroll in the Master of Ministry and Business Administration at Mount Vernon Nazarene University. Steve is on schedule to complete the program in December of 2021. During his free time, Steven enjoys spending time with his family, hiking, hunting, fishing, and volunteering in his local community and throughout the world. Steven's favorite Bible verse is Philippians 4:13. Please be encouraged to leave a review about how the book has inspired you in your personal relationship with Christ and how you believe this book will help others. God Bless!
